

Simon Bunter BSc(Hons), FFS Personal Qualifications and Experience

Simon Bunter has been employed as a fingerprint specialist since 1997, initially with the North Yorkshire Police Fingerprint Bureau and latterly with Keith Borer Consultants. He is instructed in approximately 50 criminal cases each year including murder, serious crime, assaults, burglaries, drug offences, criminal damage and other offences involving contact trace evidence. He completed his advanced fingerprint training at the National Training Centre, Durham, and whilst in police employment was included in the National Register of Police and Government Department Fingerprint Experts. He has advised and supervised Crime Scene Investigators at Major Crime Scenes and has practical experience of many fingerprint enhancement techniques. At Keith Borer Consultants he also continues to undertake research in aspects of fingerprint evidence.

Mr Bunter has a Bachelor of Science Honours (1996) in Applied Science and Forensic Measurement and is a Fellow of the Fingerprint Society. He was also a Registered Forensic Practitioner in Fingerprint Examination up to 31st March 2009 when the register closed.
